

Relocating and No One to Help?

My family is too busy... I have no family....My family lives in another city? What am I to do?

Start with a seniors' move management specialist who can guide you through the entire process. A reputable specialist will have established contacts in the areas you will need to save you time and money. Ask for a free consultation.

Services offered:

- Advise you on the process of choosing a reputable real estate agent.
- Help you select the right furniture for your new home.
- Help you downsize and get rid of items you no longer want through sale, donation and disposal.
- Create a floor plan.
- Arrange all aspects of your move, packing, unpacking, special deliveries and the actual move
- Set-up the new residence to be completely functional the evening of the move.

Where to Find a Reputable Move Management Specialist:

- Check seniors magazines such as

Helps Here or Senioropolis. Ask for names at senior centers. Ask the marketing director of a seniors residence. Search the web.

Questions to ask your specialist:

- What services do you provide?
- How long have you been in the business?
- Have you worked with seniors before and what residences have you worked with?
- Do you offer a free consultation?
- I only need certain services, can you provide them?
- Do you have references and can I speak to someone you have moved recently?

Trust your instincts, if you are not comfortable with the voice on the other end of the phone, or the answers to your questions do not meet your expectations. Do not agree to a free consultation. ■
